

English 1118

Page 8

(4) Like David's thoughts, do yours flow out in poetry?

(5) The personal writings of many great Christians now exist in published form.

(6) Others have been blessed by her devotional writings.

English 1118

(7) Here is a well-know one.

(8) "Who Is on the Lord's Side?"

English 1118

Page 9

(4) At times you may have jotted down some precious gems in your personal diary.

(5) Some talented people can write the music for a song.

(6) Have you exercised your spiritual muscle today?

English 1118

(7) They reveal the godly heart of this woman.

(8) Can you find others?

English 1118

Page 10

(4) In addition, they are a challenge for spiritual growth.

(5) For you, a natural outlet may be music.

English 1118

(6) All are good spiritual exercises.

(7) Admittedly, Frances Havergal was an unusual child.

English 1118

Page 11

(4) What means of expression seem best for you?

(5) Any one of the above would be appropriate.

English 1118

(6) Far more well-know are her great hymns.

(7) The tunes of several of her songs may be familiar to you.

English 1118

Page 14

(4) His psalms give many hope.

(5) Others give God glory through the lyrics of old favorites.

(6) Have you giving your spiritual thoughts expression in some way?

English 1118

Page 15

(4) In this way, publishers have made those writings a blessing for many.

(5) Some have called her the consecrated poet.

English 1118

Page 16

(4) In what way do you make your deepest feelings about God know?

(5) Someday others may consider your contribution very encouraging.

English 1118

Page 19

(3) Are some Christians just naturally holy, or is holiness nurtured?

(4) This was a great trial for Frances, but God did not forsake her.

English 1118

Page 21

(3) We have already learned that she wrote many Christ-honoring hymns.

(4) Whatever she did was done unto the Lord.

English 1118

Page 22

(3) Below are some things that Frances Havergal accomplished in her service for the Lord.

(4) She also published several devotional books that were especially designed for children.

English 1118

Page 23

(3) If we love God, we will gladly serve Him.

(4) Since she wrote poetry, many of her poems were published in book form.

(5) Because Miss Havergal knew the power of the Scriptures, she became a worker in the Scripture Reading Union.
