

World Geography – 1097-1108

Copy onto Avery 8162 labels or blank paper
VISIT www.pacesuccess.com for resources!

World Geo 1097 Test Tips

- Compare climate groups
- Know the difference between transform fault, subduction zone, spreading zone
- What does “ex nihilo” mean?

World Geo 1099 Test Tips

- Where did Livingston serve?
- Know difference between savannah and veld
- What is the least developed South African country?

World Geo 1101 Test Tips

- Know the states and capitals. There is a CD available with a song to help you learn them. Visit pacesuccess.com for link.

World Geo 1103 Test Tips

- Why does Iceland have earthquakes and volcanoes?
- Describe what happens when arctic water meets surface water
- Describe Greenland’s economy

World Geo 1105 Test Tips

- Straight-forward test

World Geo 1107 Test Tips

- What were the first and last Southeast Asian countries to gain complete independence?
- Match island names to countries
- Compare New Zealand’s & Australia’s economies
- Borneo is divided between what 2 countries?

World Geo 1098 Test Tips (map mania 22-26)

- What does a map legend show? Map scale?
- Know the difference between tropical grassland, temperate grassland, savannah
- Know definitions and examples for renewable and non-renewable resources

World Geo 1100 Test Tips

- Know the geographic regions of Canada map
- Know descriptions of the Provinces to match up, such as mild wet climate, greatest population richest, polar climate, Grand Banks, etc
- What is a symbolic monarch?

World Geo 1102 Test Tips

- What resource is Venezuela known for?
- What countries mine bauxite?
- Match major geographical regions of countries to country names

World Geo 1104 Test Tips

- Know the map well (mountains, seas, other landmarks)

World Geo 1106 Test Tips

- What area returned to China’s control in 1997?

World Geo 1108 Test Tips

- Straight-forward test